Owen

"Owen was diagnosed with Nephrotic Syndrome in 2004. He has battled a dependency on steroids for most of his life and had a terrible reaction to this toxic medication. He is full of life on the outside, while on the inside it is like a jigsaw puzzle with some pieces that just won't fit right, no matter what direction we try."

- Owen's Parents

Matthew

"Our son, Matthew, was diagnosed with FSGS when he was only 3 years old. Treatment is trial and error. We continue to pray every day that a cure will be discovered and our little boy will be healthy again."
