

41.2% of Illinois female-led households with children and no spouse live in poverty; more than double that of male-led households with children.

Ask me how I'm fighting this with Chicago Women Build.

Women are consistently denied mortgages at higher rates than men, despite the fact women are more reliable when it comes to paying mortgages.

Ask me how I'm fighting this with Chicago Women Build.

On average, men earn more than women (cough: gender pay gap), which results in higher credit, better loans, and better quality homes and neighborhoods.

Ask me how I'm fighting this with Chicago Women Build.